Filled with burning coals, this petite 19th-century brass brazier once warmed the hands of a well-to-do person on a cold winter's night in northern China. The brazier is crafted of white brass in a rectangular form, complete with a hinged handle and an intricately pierced lid with a chrysanthemum pattern. An unusual find, the brazier also includes an insulating drawstring case of black silk and red cotton embroidered with flowers and eternal knots.

Minor unraveling to embroidery.
