TURQUOISE CLOUD GARDEN SEAT

$1,180

Northern China, China • Ceramic, Glaze • Collection #CFC720A

H: 26.75" Dia: 15.5"

The drum-form garden seat was a fixture of the Qing dynasty garden, used as a multipurpose space to rest one's feet or serve tea. This ceramic garden stool features convex sides encircled by billowing clouds enveloped in a vibrant turquoise glaze finish. The glassy, blue-green glaze drips down the sides with irregular movement, lingering beautifully within the contours of the low relief cloud pattern. The top of the seat is perforated with a coin motif, an ancient symbol of good fortune and prosperity. Ideal indoors or out, this seat would be a lovely addition to any garden, terrace, or sunroom.
