Entitled "We," this exquisite woodcut by Chinese artist Ren Hui celebrates joy and the beauty of humanity with a crowd of smiling faces. Using a style he calls "uncomplicated and honest," the artist creates beautiful compositions by carving small notches into a painted wood background.

Ren Hui's artworks reflect the artist's richness of experience - he's been a soldier, a factory worker, and a photographer documenting life from Nanjing to Tibet. He says, "We have family, friends, ourselves, history, culture, trees, flowers, buildings, demolition—all of which are reflected in my work. Continued..."
