Deng Ying is a Beijing based artist who created an series of paintings on porcelain objects for Pagoda Red that includes this petite porcelain box painted with tea for many. In China, tea is an elixir for life, not just something to satisfy thirst. Tea is an art and a culture that offers people the chance to come together and appreciate. The artist worked on this series at the Chinese imperial kilns in Jingdezhen with the hope that these playful and symbolic objects would touch many. A small container in this shape would have traditionally been used to contain ink for an artist's seal stamp. Continued...
