

BUDDHIST STELE WITH SEATED SAKYAMUNI

$4,280

c. 1950 • Northern China, China • Limestone • Collection #XXX005

W: 15.0" D: 15.0" H: 28.5"

This restrained yet expressively carved stone figure of Sakyamuni bears traces of its original color. Sakyamuni was a sage on whose teachings Buddhism was founded. He is easily recognized by the mass of tight curls on his head. This hand-carved stone figure sits in front of a stele of teachings and captures a feeling of calm and stillness.
