LACQUERED FOUR DOOR COFFER

$5,880

c. 1850 • China • Northern Elmwood, Lacquer • Collection #CTT002

W: 60.0" D: 21.5" H: 35.0"

This 19th-century storage coffer is expertly crafted of northern elm (yumu) using traditional mortise-and-tenon joinery methods. The square-corner cabinet is built with two sets of doors that open to a large interior fitted with four drawers and a single shelf. The coffer is finished with a thin layer of red-brown lacquer and accented with full moon brass lock plates and matching square hinges. The clean-lined cabinet has minimal ornamentation, decorated only by geometric scrollwork carvings on the apron. Continued...
