BUTTERFLY WINE TABLE

$3,680

Hebei, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #BJH069

W: 45.5" D: 16.0" H: 32.75"

A tradition dating back to the Northern Song dynasty (960-1126), wine tables have been used for centuries at social gatherings as a spot to converse, sip wine, and make toasts. This elegant console table crafted from 19th-century elmwood honors this traditional form with its floating panel top, recessed leg frame, and straight round legs. The simple silhouette is beautifully contrasted by sculptural lines drawn by the humpback stretchers and butterfly-shaped spandrels topping each leg.
