PROVINCIAL GRAIN SCOOP

$288

c. 1850 • Northern China, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #CMK080

W: 8.0" D: 21.0" H: 4.0"

Hand-carved in northern China over a century ago, this provincial scoop was originally used for rice or grains. With time, the wood has developed a smooth character that calls to be touched. The form is graphic and represents bounty and prosperity. We like to use a scoop as an unexpected dish for snack foods or small items.
