CHRYSANTHEMUM JAR

$2,680

c. 1850 • Shanxi, China • Ceramic • Collection #ZZZ117B

H: 24.75" Dia: 22.0"

A motif of chrysanthemums in relief decorates this ceramic vase. This jar's rich brown finish is hand-glazed both inside and out. Because chrysanthemums bloom late in the year, even into winter, they are associated with the virtue of endurance in the face of difficult times. This monumental jar with a deep, rich colored glaze and heavily textured finish is easy to imagine planted indoors or out with a carefully selected specimen--one of our favorite trees of choice is the fiddle leaf fig.
