PETITE OFFERING BOWL

$128

c. 1850 • Northern China, China • Ceramic • Collection #NN189

H: 1.25" Dia: 5.25"

This petite 18th-century earthenware bowl is cloaked in an opaque cream glaze, which drips and pools over the bowl's shallow form. The tiny bowl has a textured finish and rests on an unglazed footed base. Once used to present ritual offerings on a domestic altar, we love this small dish as a charming way to store small items on a desk or console table.
