FRENCH TEA TABLE WITH CABRIOLE LEGS

$3,880

c. 1900 • France • Oak • Collection #CFC350

W: 44.5" D: 32.5" H: 28.0"

Crafted in France in the late 19th century, this refined Louis XV-style side table boasts a timeless, lightweight design defined by delicate cabriole legs ending in square hoof feet. A beaded edge flows along the scalloped apron and down each gently scrolled leg. The rectangular table top has a beautifully curved shape, comprised of three thin boards with rounded, beveled edges. With graceful form and balanced proportions, this elegant table finds its place in any room.
