MUSTARD JADE ARCHER'S RING LINED IN STERLING

$880

c. 1850 • Northern China, China • Silver, Jade • Collection #CGC001F

H: 1.0" Dia: 1.25"

Hand-carved of the highest quality jade, this 19th-century archer's ring was likely worn by a gentleman-scholar in Northern China. Traditionally, Chinese archers wore these rings to protect their thumbs while drawing a bowstring. Over time, these jade rings became fashion accessories and a decorative display of status. This stunning mustard jade ring, hued a lovely orange color with currents of red deposits, has been recently lined with sterling silver by a contemporary artisan, adding a modern finish and narrowing the interior diameter to ring size 10.
