STONE BI DISC

Beijing, China • Stone • Collection #BJCC008E

W: 15.75" D: 3.5" H: 19.25"

Connoisseurs have cherished stone bi discs, like this one, for thousands of years, attracted by their rich heritage, beauty, and rarity. Bi discs, like this one, have been found in the tombs of ancient Chinese emperors and aristocrats, but no one knows their true meaning. Shaping this hard stone takes considerable skill. An artisan imbues the stone with this soft, satiny glow by patiently rubbing the surface with sand. This warm brown, mottled disc is particularly striking set upon a custom steel mount.
