PAIR OF JAPANESE MEN'S SUITING PILLOWS

$858

Japan • Fabric • Collection #CTX053

W: 19.25" D: 8.0" H: 18.0"

The Jazz Age of Japan, the Taisho era (1912-1926) was characterized by exuberance and an embrace of Western style. Young people eagerly adopted Western dress with men swapping traditional garb for bell-bottom trousers, floppy ties and colored shirts. As a tribute to this adventurous time, this pair of artisan-crafted pillows filled with down piece together swatches of Japanese fabrics culled from men's suits in a dynamic patchwork.
