PETITE SQUARE WOVEN BOX

$128

c. 1900 • Southeast Asia • Bamboo, Lacquer • Collection #CFC176

W: 3.25" D: 3.25" H: 3.0"

Dated to the early 20th-century, this petite box was woven of thin bamboo strips and finished with a putty-like substance known as thayo, comprised of black lacquer and sawdust. The box is formed with a continuous weave that bends to a square form, reinforced by wooden rods on the lid. Used for general storage of small items, the humble box is a work of art in itself and a beautiful example of a traditional craft.
