SHAKER DINING TABLE

$15,800

c. 1850 • United States • Wood • Collection #CMCL097

W: 72.25" D: 30.75" H: 30.5"

This versatile Shaker dining table dates to the mid-19th century and boasts a beautiful patina with a smooth texture that calls to be touched. The table has a rich, dark brown finish and features a rectangular two-plank top resting on four tapered square legs. The richly aged surface is marked with notches, divots and grooves for an inimitable texture that reveals its age. A beautiful example of the minimalism of Shaker furniture, the table's clean-lined form and balanced proportions maintain a modern and timeless appeal.

Repaired split to table top.
