RED LACQUER APOTHECARY COFFER

$4,880

c. 1850 • Shanxi, China • Northern Elmwood, Brass, Lacquer • Collection #CJGM001

W: 64.0" D: 15.0" H: 30.0"

This 19th-century elmwood coffer was originally used by a Qing-dynasty pharmacy to organize and store herbal medicines. A statement piece brilliantly constructed with mortise and tenon joinery, it has twenty-three drawers, each beautifully dovetailed together and adorned with their original brass pulls. The coffer's once-brilliant red lacquer finish has mellowed to a rich crimson, with a pattern of wear that provides graphic rhythm and fantastic character.
