W: 120.0" D: 32.5" H: 29.25"

Born to host big gatherings, this 18th-century English dining table's humble design is based on the traditional refectory table. Long and rectangular, this type of table served communal meals in medieval monasteries. Made of Welsh oak, the wide-planked table top features perpendicular breadboard ends to prevent warping. A rustic dark-polished pine base adds to the table's casual, farmhouse style.
