RIMMED FISHERMAN BASKET

$288

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Willow, Reed • Collection #BJFF090W

H: 15.25" Dia: 13.25"

Centuries ago, a reed fisherman's basket like this one would have been fairly common in rural China: an everyday item that would have been used until it was worn through. This particular example remains in beautiful condition, and so a century later, it has become a lovely collector's item. The willow and reed has worn beautifully with time but remain intact: a true testament to its maker's skill. We love this piece as a rustic wastebasket in a bathroom or study.
