Dated to the late 19th century, this silver charm ring was crafted by the Miao peoples of the Guizhou province and was believed to protect the wearer from bad luck and malevolent spirits. The ring is decorated in relief with a large bat surrounded by swirling clouds. A visual metaphor for the word "blessings," bats are good omens thought to bring about happiness and prosperity. The front of the ring is strung with a thin chain ending with a small charm shaped as a peach, a symbol of longevity.

Ring band is adjustable. All jewelry sales are final. No refunds or exchanges.
