Each captivating portal vase by artist Viktor van Bramer began its life as a painting on canvas. Embracing the meditative tedium of painting, van Bramer allows the intricacies of each brushstroke to guide his final design. The artist first deconstructs each finished abstract painting into its component brushstrokes. He then layers the gestural motions onto a simple vase form, arranging and rearranging until a sense of balance is achieved. Animated by line and texture, this portal vase captures the beauty of constant change within a static object.

Viktor van Bramer is an artist, florist, and perfumer based in Chicago, IL with works featured in The Hoxton Chicago collection, Young American Bar, and private collections across the U. Continued...
