W: 26.75" D: 27.0" H: 19.75"

The fang deng, or square stool, form was popular for its simplicity and utility in the home. The simple legs, stacked edging, sinuous braces, and rattan top make this a particularly unique example. The timeworn finish combines with rattan and original wood grain to provide a spectrum of tones and textures. Originally used as a seat in a traditional Chinese home, this stool lives on as a unique side or accent table in the modern home.
