STONE KITCHEN MORTAR

$188

c. 1800 • Shandong, China • Granite • Collection #TLC037X

H: 5.5" Dia: 7.0"

Carved from a single block of granite, this stone vessel is an early 19th century mortar once used in a Chinese kitchen to grind spices, herbs, and other condiments. The exterior has the organic texture of raw stone, while the interior is smooth to the touch - well worn from years of use. Today, the rustic stone mortar layers into modern interiors as a tabletop planter, salt cellar or sculptural candle holder.
