c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Paint, Pine • Collection #TLB151

W: 15.25" D: 12.75" H: 18.5"

This provincial stool dates to the turn of the century and would have been used throughout a courtyard home as versatile everyday seating. Crafted of pine using mortise-and-tenon joinery, the tapered stool has a rectangular seat supported by four splayed legs linked with straight stretcher bars. The stool is darkened by traces of the original red painted finish, now well-worn and cracked with age.

Repaired split to one stretcher bar.
