W: 36.0" D: 13.0" H: 20.5"

Made of humble pine, this gorgeous Tibetan trunk nevertheless impresses with perfect proportions and a timeless, minimal design. The trunk dates to the late 19th century, a period that saw a distinctive style of medium-sized chests finished with hide and ironwork. This particular trunk features its original yak hide exterior, secured by original iron hardware and decorated with a spotted fur insert on the front. The trunk remains in fantastic condition, a testament to the skill and meticulous attention to detail of the craftsman. Continued...
