YUNNAN LOBED POT

$580

c. 1800 • China • Terra Cotta • Collection #TLC072F

H: 10.5" Dia: 9.5"

Charged with the humble task of storing dry goods, this small terracotta pot was hand-shaped in the 19th century with balanced proportions and a beautifully irregular brown-green slip finish. The lobed pot features a round form with a narrow base and a constrained neck flanked by two small strap handles. The jar has a quiet beauty, patterned by rhythmic grooves to enliven its simple provincial construction. Fluid ribbed designs cascade across the surface, creating a wonderfully textured exterior for easier grip. Continued...

YUNNAN LOBED POT

The chiseled surface of the pot has weathered with time, developing subtle color variation and adding rich character to the terracotta.
